An "Abolitionist" from Ken-Honors to Admiral Farrage all his men have been brought from South-ern dungsoms to Richmond, and are treated as other prisoners. This change in their con-dition has been brought about by the retaila-tory measures of this Government. The case of Lieut. Cei. Powell, of the Vir-ginia loyal volunteers, who was reported to be confined as a criminal in Richmond, is now under investigation. The rebel author-tites have been interrogated respecting him, and if the reply is not estisfactory a rebel THE IRON REBEL RAMS.

Giagrow are stopped by the Government, and wait the decision of a legal tribunal. This drives the last still in the rebel coffin. No ray of bope from this side Huminates the cause of the rebellion.

This decision will be the one for Louis Napoleon, and as he has declined to act without England, the game of intervention, recognition and assistance on this side may be considered up. The gloon that has been gathering over the secession cause in general, and the mind of John Bull in particular, has now chiminated in one grand yall of despair. All that cheeky, aruthant tons, which was so rife before the sith of July, has gone to the tomb of the Capulsta. H in not one disaster, or one piace of bad news, but a myrind. You know "sorrows come not single spice, but in battalions." These corrows are for the Southern rebels, and they are caused by the lattalions of Uncle hum.
